Goalkeeper (Rule 5)

What is allowed ?

- To touch the ball with any part of the body and move freely with the ball inside goal area
- To leave the goal area and participate in the game
(player rules apply when doing so: consider them as a "specialist")

What is not allowed ?

- To endanger the opponent

Main Rules Related to GK

Punishment (Rule 16)

- A suspension must be given for a faulty substitution or illegal entering of the court (16:2 a).
- A disqualification must be given for fouls of the goalkeeper, leaving his goal area during a “Shoot-out” and endangering the health of the opponent (16:6 d).

Main Rules Related to GK

Appendice 9 – Shoot-out and fast break

If during a Shoot-out or fast break the defending goalkeeper or player obstructs the running path of the attacking player, causing a physical contact, both a 6-metre throw and a suspension or a disqualification shall be awarded.

The defending goalkeeper or player always bears the responsibility of this kind of action.

02

Inside the Goal Area

not clearly going into the direction of the attacking player.

Goal Disqualification

Goalkeeper jumps in the direction of the attacking player, hitting him in the face with his leg.

Goal Disqualification

Goalkeeper jumps in the direction of the attacking player, hitting him in the neck with his knees.

Goal Disqualification

Goalkeeper clearly jumps in the direction of the attacking player, hitting him in the back with his knees twice.

03

Outside the Goal Area

6m throw Disqualification

Defending specialist hits attacking player's arm from behind to prevent him from shooting at the empty goal.

6m throw Suspension

Defending specialist pulls down attacking player who's trying to catch the ball, preventing him from shooting at the empty goal.

04

Shoot-out Situations
